CHÂTEAU ANGÉLUS 1ER GRAND CRU CLASSE
bot. 7200,-

France / Saint Emilion
A brilliant, intense, almost dark purple colour. The cornerstone on which this vintage is built is its great aromatic purity. Black fruit and wild cherry notes come bursting to the fore, while the oak is already completely integrated. The attack on the palate is suave, while the smooth, round and enveloping tannins are cashmere-like in texture. The finish, thanks to the homogeneously high quality of the Cabernet Franc, displays notes of spice and menthol, together with lovely freshness and tension.

CHAPOUTIER SELECTION PARCELAIRES LE MEAL
bot. 3500,-

France / AOCHermitage / Marsanne
The intense colour of patinated gold evolves into barely perceptible shades of brown at the edge of the wine. Represented by aromas of sweet fruits such as quince, sweet mango mixed with flavours of roasted almonds, yellow fruit cream, hay and also celery. A mineral touch awakes associations with crystal clear water from a mountain spring. It evolves over time. With the first sip, the wine strikes with intensity and depth of flavour: Continually very fresh, surprises with sensationally integrated cask nuances. Yellow fruits, tropical fruits, fruit nectar, multi-flower honey, salted butter or blanched almonds.

BLACK STALLION BUCEPHALUS RED BLEND
bot. 3600,-

Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Petit Verdot, Syrah
Aromas of blackcurrant, sandalwood and clove blend exquisitely with rich, ripe blackberry and dark cherry fruit flavours, and maple syrup. Wine with full intense depth and broad rich flavours.

bot. 7800,-

The second wine of Carruades de Lafite Rothschild, 2-eme Vin de Lafite, shares similar qualities with Grand Vin but has its own personality associated with a higher proportion of Merlot. It takes its name from the Carruades plateau, a group of plots of land acquired in 1845 right next to the vineyards on the Château hill. Aromas: cedar, earthy, mineral, berry fruit, blueberry, dried plum flavours mild, smooth and fresh, blackberries intermingled with blackcurrant. A wonderful sense of symmetry and harmony. Exquisitely elegant.
